

Bob Aldrich

Assistant Executive Officer

Bob Aldrich came to Orange County LAFCO as the Project Manager in 2000. In his current role as Assistant Executive Officer, Mr. Aldrich is responsible for the overall management, planning, and analysis of LAFCO projects, providing direction to staff and consulting teams on specific projects, and budget development. He currently manages several projects, including the Municipal Service Review and Unincorporated Islands Programs.

Mr. Aldrich has an undergraduate degree in Social Ecology from the University of California, Irvine, and a Master's Degree in Public Policy and Administration from California State University, Long Beach. Prior to joining the LAFCO team, he worked for over 17 years as an urban planner for both the County of Orange and the City of Huntington Beach.

While at the County's Planning and Development Services Department, Mr. Aldrich served as Chief of the Advance Planning Section. He was directly involved in analyzing major land use development proposals, mitigation monitoring programs, affordable housing issues, and countywide demographic projections. He also served as project manager for an overall update of the County's General Plan.
