Commission Clerk Cheryl Carter-Benjamin noted that there were no requests submitted to speak from the public. Chair Davert opened the hearing of public comments and noted that he did receive a request by text from Stacy Taylor to speak to the Commission.

Stacy Taylor, from Mesa Water District, provided general comments regarding a legislative effort involving Government Code Section 56133 in the CKH Act that governs new or added services by a city or district outside its jurisdictional boundary. She noted that OC LAFCO has a standing policy for the implementation of this section that was last updated nine years ago and seems to contradict current law. Ms. Taylor mentioned that the Commission's constituents, including Mesa Water District, as members of the California Special District Association, are part of a statewide advocacy group to oppose this effort. She ended her comments with requesting the Commission to take another look at its policy and discuss it at the next regular meeting.

Chair Davert asked general counsel to review the policy and report back to the Commission as appropriate.

Chair Davert closed the hearing of public comments.
